

Privacy Policy

The relationship between FM Approvals and its customers does not concern products or services intended primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

To gain access to FM Approvals' proprietary online applications, visitors are required to send information to FM Approvals through the registration process. This information, which typically includes the user's e-mail address, is shared on a need-to-know basis within FM Approvals and its e-commerce business partners. Any personally identifiable information submitted to FM Approvals in connection with an e-commerce transaction is used strictly for the purpose of obtaining access to the site. FM Approvals contractually requires its business partners having access to any personally identifiable information to keep such information confidential and use it solely for the legitimate business purpose authorized by FM Approvals.

Linking to this Web site enables FM Approvals to collect certain information through the use of 'cookies' or other technology. This information typically is limited to an Internet Protocol (IP) address; FM Approvals does not keep, or have access to, personal e-mail addresses as the result of links to, or other use of, this Web site. No information is shared with third parties.

This Privacy Policy applies solely to the use of this site, and not to any other practices of FM Approvals.
